Speaker Dr. Christopher Hill

Dr. Christopher Hill is the Director of the Graduate School, The University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus. He has been responsible for the development of a fully functional Graduate Centre that provides students with quality research training in line with courses offered at The University of Nottingham and the establishment of a support base and a sense of community for the students undertaking their degrees in Malaysia.

Christopher has been a member of The University of Nottingham for the past ten years; obtaining a BA in Classical Civilization, an MA in International Relations and a PhD in Political Science.

Christopher is the co-founder and Executive Director of The Agora Group, a youth think tank that provides an opportunity for students to discuss issues of a global nature. Christopher has been involved in organizing and running student conferences on an international scale and founded an electronic journal dedicated to providing a platform for student publication at an early stage of their academic careers. In August 2007, Christopher co-founded Agora Group Ghana, an NGO dedicated to improving education and welfare in Ghana and to raising political awareness and participation.
