Speaker Anthony Tan

Anthony Tan, holds an honors degree in civil engineering and management studies from Leeds University UK, is a Performance Management Consultant with more than 19 years experience in providing Performance Management Solutions to established organizations like Carlsberg Malaysia, OCBC , Allianz General, Pure Circle, IBM Vietnam, IBBM, Telekom Malaysia Berhad, Mizuho Bank Japan, Marie Stopes International, Ramunia Fabricators, Mimos, Astro Malaysia, World Vision Vietnam, ACL, Malaysia Transformer Manufacturing, Fiberail Berhad and many others.

With his tremendous experience, analytical skill and logical thinking, he was able to develop many cutting edge experiential training programs that have benefited many organizations. In many ways, he has revolutionized a new way of learning and skill development. Anthony's commitment and dedication in transforming organizations and people to achieve best-in-class performances are evident in his engagement with multinational corporations and government organizations across South East Asia. With his high level of facilitation skill, his programs are always exciting and a great learning experience.

To be successful in the 21st century, people in an organization need to dramatically Change Their Orientation on how to get things done. It is no longer based on individual effort alone. Working together as "one" is the most critical factor to ensure organization stays successful today and the future.

The ½ day highly interactive and practical course will helps participants Learn Through A Well Coordinated Simulation Game. They will be made to understand the various learning points through "Personal Experience", Group Diagnosis and Discussion Sessions.
